

Worksheet 06: My passion in life

Where is your passion in life? A great job is one that plays to your unique passions and your strengths. If you don't call attention to those passions, nobody else will. What do you love doing? Solving problems? Helping others? Empowering others? Putting the pieces together? Dig deep, and then keep digging. Once you complete this list, keep it close as you start to look at what's next in your career.
